Astarte Edizioni is a publishing house dedicated to the Mediterranean world, born in Tuscany in the autumn of 2019. In 2020 it was awarded the spin-off company brand of the University of Pisa.

Astarte Edizioni aims to give voice to the art and culture of the countries of the Mediterranean basin, enhancing their tangible and intangible cultural heritage, with a view that ranges from local to global.

Company name: ASTARTE EDIZIONI DI PAOLICCHI CAROLINA
Location: PISA (PI), Via Lazio 2, 56124
Fiscal and VAT code: IT02350050502
Established: October 2019
Legal form: SOLE PROPRIETORSHIP
Internet site: https://astarteedizioni.it/
NACE Code: 58.11
Sector: PUBLISHING
Spinoff: Università di Pisa
Defined Team

The team consists entirely of qualified personnel from the University of Pisa.

CAROLINA PAOLICCHI

Founder, owner and editorial director of literature. Translator and specialist in francophony of the Mediterranean world and migration literature.

FRANCESCA MANNOCCHI

Editor and Chief Editor. Art historian, expert in cataloging and valorising bibliographic and archival heritage.

ANITA PAOLICCHI

Editorial director of art. Art historian, specialist in transculturalism of the Byzantine-Slavic world, translator.

info@astarteeditizioni.it astarteedizioni@pec.it
I PARTNERS

- University professors and researchers who direct the series and participate in scientific committees;

- Cultural institutions;

- Associations and Nonprofit organizations for the realization of targeted projects to support their activities.
INTERESTS AND MARKET GEOGRAPHIC AREA OF INTEREST

THE AIM

Astarte Edizioni is an independent publishing house that aims to give voice to the art and culture of the countries of the Mediterranean basin, enhancing their tangible and intangible cultural heritage, with a view that ranges from local to global.

TO WHOM?

Each series is aimed at a specific reader, to correspond to various needs and interests, not only specialists in historical, historical-artistic and literary disciplines, but also enthusiasts with interests in local history, art and literature.